MEMORANDUM FOR: Chief, Personnel Branch, DPD

SUBJECT: Extension of Tour of Duty

REFERENCE: Memorandum to DPD/C/SPB from DPD/C/PERS; subject: Notification of Expiration of Tour of Duty; dated
7 August 1961 (DPD 4915-61)

1. It is recommended that Lt. Colonel Charles L. Murphy be extended for one year to allow for evaluation of requirements and adequate training of replacement.
2. The status of the over-all project through August 1963 is unknown. If, in the interim period, the requirement for a DPD representative is removed less confusion will exist in reassignment of Lt. Colonel Murphy than a new officer.
3. Since the assignment of a DPD representative on the West Coast his stature has changed appreciably. He is involved in the entire spectrum of satellite coordination including operations, development, and contractual matters. A minimum of six months overlap is considered necessary to fully qualify a new man in the program.
4. Lt. Colonel Murphy has indicated his desire for this extension.
